Children's Storytime at the Crescent Hill Branch Library

Children's Storytime at the Crescent Hill Branch Library continues in April. Sessions for parents and tots will be held every Thursday, through April 23 at 10 am. Preschool storytime is 11 am on Thursdays, also through April 23.

The Crescent Hill Branch Library, located at 2762 Frankfort Avenue, is open from 10 am to 8 pm Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and 10 am to 5 pm Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Call 896-1012 for more information.

April is KidsMonth

April is KidsMonth in the City of Louisville and a variety of events are planned all over the community.

A major event is scheduled in Crescent Hill on April 18, when the St. Joseph Children's Home hosts a KidsDay Celebration and Baby Fair. The event features art experiences, community service agency booths, hot air balloon rides and children's vendors with giveaways and discounts. It's free and runs from 10 am to 3 pm at 2823 Frankfort Avenue.

For more information about KidsMonth activities, call 625-3933.

Sacred Heart Home Sponsors Caring for the Elderly Series

Sacred Heart Home is sponsoring a series of presentations on caring for the elderly as part of its centenary celebration. The next session is on communicating and relating skills and will be presented by Bill Stanley of the Family & Children's Agency at 7pm on Thursday, April 23 at the Sacred Heart Home, 2120 Payne Street.

The public is invited. Register by April 17 by calling 895-9888.

The Crescent Hill United Methodist Church will sponsor the following special services in April, all of which are open to the public.

- April 16 - Maundy Thursday Holy Communion Service in church sanctuary, 201 South Peterson Avenue, 7:30 pm.
- April 19 - Annual Easter Sunrise Service at Barret Middle School, 2561 Grinstead Drive, 7 am.
- Easter Service in church sanctuary, 201 S Peterson Ave, 11 am.
- April 26 - Gaither's "Alleluia" in church sanctuary, presented by the chancel choir, 11 am.

Editor's note - Most Crescent Hill churches will have special services this month. Information about the proceedings was provided to the newsletter before the publication deadline. Information about other services can be obtained by calling church office. Happy Easter!

Volunteer Openings at United Crescent Hill Ministries

United Crescent Hill Ministries is always in need of volunteers for its community service and ecumenical witness projects in the neighborhood. Opportunities for April 1992 include the following:

G.E.D. TUTORS - Monday or Tuesday evenings, 5:30 to 7:30 pm; assist one student at a time with reading and math practice.

FOOD SERVICE SUBSTITUTES - on call for occasional morning work serving meals for home delivery and Senior Center luncheon.

INTERVIEWERS FOR EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE - regular or substitute service interviewing applicants for emergency assistance aid.

PICKUP DRIVER WITH TRUCK - on call to assist with light moving or transporting food cartons.

If you can help with any of these good works, call Marian Ziebell, Coordinator of Volunteer Services, at 893-0346. UCHM is located at 1860 Frankfort Avenue and serves Crescent Hill, Clifton and Clifton Heights.
